

Scottish Water Business Stream Limited

GUIDE TO INFORMATION AVAILABLE THROUGH THE MODEL PUBLICATION SCHEME 2021

The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 requires Scottish public authorities to produce and maintain a publication scheme. Authorities must publish the classes of information they routinely make available and explain how the public can access that information, including any applicable charges.

Scottish Water Business Stream Limited has adopted the Model Publication Scheme produced by the Scottish Information Commissioner, published on 26 March 2021.

You can see this scheme on our website here or by contacting us at the address below.

Regulation and Compliance

Business Stream
1-3 Lochside Crescent
Edinburgh
EH12 9SE

The purpose of this Guide to Information is to:

- allow you to see what information is available (and what is not available) in relation to each class,
- state what charges may be applied
- explain how you can find the information easily
- provide contact details for enquiries and to get help with accessing the information
- explain how to request information we hold that has not been published

Availability and formats

Wherever possible, we publish information covered by the model scheme on our website. If you do not want to, or cannot, access information online or inspect it at our premises, we can usually provide it in another format, such as a paper copy. A charge may apply.

Exempt information

We will publish the information we hold that falls within the classes of information below. If a document contains information that is exempt under Scotland's freedom of information laws (for example sensitive personal information or a trade secret), we may remove or redact the information before publication, but we will explain why.

Copyright

Scottish Water Business Stream Limited has adopted the Non-Commercial Government Licence for public sector information www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/doc/non-commercial-government-licence/version/2/. This sets out what you can and cannot do with our published information where we are the copyright holder.

Where Scottish Water Business Stream Limited does not hold the copyright in information we publish, we will make this clear in this guide.

Charges

This section explains when we may make a charge for our publications and how any charge will be calculated.

There is no charge to view information on our website or at our premises except where there is a statutory fee, for example, for access to registers.

We may charge for providing information to you e.g. photocopying and postage, but we will charge you no more than it costs us to do so. We will always tell you what the cost is before providing the information to you.

Our photocopying charge per sheet of paper is shown in the table below:

Size of paper	Pence per single sided copy (black and white)	Pence per single sided copy (colour)
A1	5p	15p
A2	5p	15p
A3	5p	15p
A4	5p	15p
A5	5p	15p

Information provided on CD-Rom will be charged at £1 per computer disc.

We will recharge any postage costs at the rate we paid to send the information to you.

When providing copies of pre-printed publications, we will charge no more than the cost per copy of the total print run.

We do not pass on any other costs to you in relation to our published information.

The classes of information that we publish

We publish information that we hold within the following classes. Once information is published under a class we will continue to make it available for the current and previous two financial years.

Where information has been updated or superseded, only the current version will be available. If you would like to see previous versions, you are welcome to make a request to us for that information.

The following tables set out the classes of information we publish, the information available within each class, and how to access it. Where information is available online, links are provided. Where information is available on request, contact details are provided.
